V. INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Suggested Text: [This list of texts should be reviewed annually. The instructor may choose additional materials as supplements.]

Early Childhood Education Practicum Manual

Supplemental Textbooks:

Bender, Judith, Half a Childhood: Time for School-Age Child Care, School Age Notes. Current edition.

Harms, Thelma, Jacobs Vienberg, Ellen, and Ramano White, Donna, School-Age Environment Rating Scale (SACERS), Teachers College Press. Current edition.

Required Supplemental Materials: The student may need to purchase additional materials for this course to provide concrete learning experiences for children. The student may be able to find items at garage sales or second hand stores to keep costs at a minimum.

VI. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

The student is expected to take the primary responsibility for learning. The student is provided the opportunity to have actual experiences with children and staff in an early childhood program. Instruction methods will include, but not be limited to demonstration, discussion, and observation. Students may be required to provide videos of teaching demonstrations. Interactive sessions (held in person or by email) will encourage students to examine their experiences and get feedback from others. Individual conferences (held in person, by email, online technology, or by phone) with the instructor will help guide the students toward improved skills in school-age setting.

VII. METHODS OF EVALUATION

Students may be assessed by attendance at the practicum site, observation from the on-site supervisor, reflection journals and their own self-evaluation using an evaluation instrument provided by the instructor. Students will be assessed on the quality and developmentally appropriateness of the plans and materials utilized to implement experiences for school-age children. Students will also be assessed based upon their communication with children, families and colleagues in the school age setting.

Through practicum experiences, students are being trained as potential employees in the early childhood profession. Employability is based not only on working skills but also on attendance, punctuality, dependability, and attitude. The student's scheduled time in practicum is very important. It is of extreme importance that students be present and on time. The children and staff are depending on students as an important part of the total program team. Employment skills will be part of the overall assessment for this class.

Other evaluations may include: observation from the on-site supervisor, reflection journals, and self-evaluation using an evaluation instrument provided by the instructor. Students will be assessed on the quality and developmentally appropriateness of the plans and materials utilized to implement experiences for school-age children. Students will also be assessed based upon their communication with children, families, and colleagues in the school age setting.
